

THE SEA LION LEAVES THE DESERT

PASTOR TIMOTHY GREEN

As we journey through life we face battles. Life is a journey. We must not forget that. This world is not our home, we are just passing through. There is a life after this life in a place called eternity.

But as we journey through this life, we face many battles. We have a real enemy who is out to destroy us. He wants to deceive us. He wants to rob us. He wants to keep us from the life that God desires for us.

“We must fight the forces that oppose our becoming whole; we must find our way through difficult and unfamiliar territory to our true home.”

2 Timothy 3:5 talks about people who have a form of godliness but deny the power.

God’s power and Spirit should be demonstrated in our lives and if it’s not, then maybe we are deceiving ourselves by thinking that we are living and walking in the Spirit.

It saddens me and I know that it grieves the heart of God for people to be satisfied with less than God’s best. For people to be content with just going through the motions of Christianity.

Are you just going through the motions? Do you have a strong desire, a passion, fervency for the things of God?

Sometimes God leads us into the desert, not because He doesn’t love us, but because He does. He loves us too much to sit by idle and watch us allow other things in this world to take the place of Him. We might have a little shade. We might have a small muddy water hole, but after awhile, God sends the wind and blows the leaves off of our tree. The wind dries up our water hole, forcing us to look back into the direction of the sea. Back toward the place where God created for us.

Don’t be content living in the desert when God has an ocean for you to swim in. Don’t listen to the lies of those who have lost their way and turned their back on God. God wants you to start dreaming again. He wants to awaken your heart. Leave the desert behind and make your way back to the sea of God’s goodness.
